NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.

NOTICE: You may obtain your child support security numbers from any written judgment filed with the court in this case, other than a final judgment, or from your spouse's partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: If you or your partner are separated by mutual agreement or the collapse of a domestic partnership, you do not longer have domestic rights to property, spousal or child support, and any other similar rights. It does not automatically cancel the domestic partner's or spouse's right to benefits or health insurance coverage. If you have a life insurance policy, you should review those policies and change beneficiaries if appropriate. Insurance policies will contain documents and credit reports to determine whether there is a change of ownership. You should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.
