NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.

1 This Stipulation for Judgment is entered into between Petitioner, CHRISTOPHER PRATT 2 ("Petitioner"), and Respondent, ANNA FARIS ("Respondent").

3 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED that the Court enter the Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage

1           2.       CONFIDENTIALITY

2           A.       The parties and his/her respective counsel acknowledge that they have 3 concurrently executed a Stipulated Further Judgment effective October 10, 2018, which contains all 4 executory and non-executory provisions of the agreement reached between the parties. In the event
5 of a conflict between the terms of this Stipulated Judgment and the Stipulated Further 6 Judgment, the terms of the Stipulated Further Judgment shall prevail. Pursuant to the specific 7 and explicit agreement of the parties:

8                       (1)       This Stipulated Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage contains some, but 9 not all, executory or other provisions of the Stipulated Further Judgment.

10                      (2)       The Stipulated Further Judgment has been executed in duplicate and 11 either party may, subject to the notice provisions hereof, file said Stipulated Further Judgment at any 12 time that such party believes that the filing of same is reasonably necessary to obtain compliance with 13 any provision of said Stipulated Further Judgment or to enforce any executory term contained therein.
14 Notwithstanding the foregoing, said Stipulated Further Judgment shall not be filed with the Court 15 unless the party who alleges a breach: (a) provides the other party with ten (10) business days advance 16 written notice identifying the alleged breach in order to allow him/her time to rectify the breach and 17 to comply with the terms of the Stipulated Further Judgment; and (b) such breach has not been cured 18 within said ten (10) business day period. In connection with any request to modify the Stipulated 19 Further Judgment, the party seeking to modify same shall not file the Stipulated Further Judgment with 20 the Court unless and until the party seeking the modification provides the other party with ten (10) 21 business days advance written notice of the terms of the proposed modification. The party who 22 provides written notification that he/she intends to seek a modification of the Stipulated Further 23 Judgment shall provide to the other party an opportunity to agree to the modification within the ten 24 (10) business day period following said written notice.

25                      (3)       The party seeking to file the Stipulated Further Judgment, after providing 26 notice and an opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph 2A(2) above, or after providing notice of a 27 proposed modification pursuant to Paragraph 2A(2) above, shall request that the Court seal the 28 Stipulated Further Judgment prior to filing same with the Court. If sealing is not permitted by the

1 Court, then said party shall seek to file the Stipulated Further Judgment in the most confidential
2 manner possible at the time of said filing (including redaction of portions of the Stipulated Further 3 Judgment not relevant to the pending dispute).

4 (4) Based upon the foregoing, the Court orders that either party may file the 5 Stipulated Further Judgment executed concurrently herewith (after providing notice, and an 6 opportunity to cure if there is an alleged breach, as is set forth above) provided that said party files it 7 in the most confidential manner possible at the time of filing.

8 3. SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS BETWEEN THE PARTIES:

9 A. Petitioner has acknowledged (a) that all negotiations leading to this Stipulated 10 Judgment were carried on at arm's length; (b) that the confidential relationship arising out of the 11 marriage of the parties did not exist during such negotiations, except as provided by Family Code
12 §§ 721 and 2102; and © that Petitioner recognized that his interests and Respondent's interests were 13 adverse during such negotiations.

14 B. Respondent has acknowledged (a) that all negotiations leading to this Stipulated 15 Judgment were carried on at arm's length; (b) that the confidential relationship arising out of the 16 marriage of the parties did not exist during such negotiations, except as provided by Family Code
17 §§ 721 and 2102; and © that Respondent recognized that her interests and Petitioner's interests were 18 adverse during such negotiations.

19 C. In negotiating the economic terms of this Stipulated Judgment, each party hereto 20 has had the opportunity to obtain from each other, and from others, all facts pertaining to financial 21 aspects of the parties, including all of the financial circumstances of the other party, and the income 22 which each is likely to derive from the property acquired by each hereunder, through discovery 23 procedures and otherwise, both on a voluntary basis and through formal discovery procedures. Each 24 party has warranted and represented that each party desired a settlement of all of the matters set forth 25 in this Stipulated Judgment and that each party has chosen not to exercise any further discovery rights

1           4.     SPOUSAL SUPPORT:

2           A.     Petitioner waives receipt of spousal support (temporary or permanent) from 3 Respondent. The Court shall not retain jurisdiction to award spousal support to Petitioner.

4           B.     Respondent waives receipt of spousal support (temporary or permanent) from 5 Petitioner. The Court shall not retain jurisdiction to award support to Respondent.

6           C.     Petitioner and Respondent each forever waive and release any and all right that 7 he or she may have to spousal support, maintenance or alimony from the other party at any time, 8 regardless of whether it may be a great hardship for either party in the future. The Court further finds 9 that each party has released and discharged the other from any and all obligations, statutory or 10 otherwise, to provide spousal support, maintenance or alimony to the other. The Court approves said 11 waiver and based thereon, the Court terminates forever its jurisdiction to order spousal support from 12 Petitioner to Respondent or from Respondent to Petitioner. (CP AF AF]

13           D.     The parties have acknowledged and agreed that they each have carefully 14 considered, bargained and negotiated for a full waiver of spousal support and the termination of 15 jurisdiction over spousal support. Accordingly, the full waiver of spousal support by each party and 16 their agreement for the court to terminate jurisdiction such that neither party can ever seek support 17 from the other, under any circumstances, is absolute and no court shall have or retain any jurisdiction, 18 authority or power to alter, terminate, change, modify, extend or otherwise order any temporary or 19 permanent spousal support payments from one party to the other, regardless of how each party's 20 financial circumstances may change in the future.

21           E.     The Court shall not retain jurisdiction to order spousal support payable by either 22 party to the other party at any time regardless of any circumstances that may arise.

23           F.     Petitioner and Respondent warrant and represent that each has had the 24 opportunity to consult with, and has consulted with, his/her respective legal counsel concerning the 25 meaning of the foregoing spousal support provisions herein.

26           5.     CHILD SUPPORT:

27           A.     Subject to paragraph 5.D, each of the parties shall pay for the ordinary living 28 expenses of the minor child when the minor child is in the care/custody of that party, until the minor

1 child reaches the age of eighteen (18) years, dies, marries or is otherwise emancipated, or, for an 2 unmarried child who has attained the age of eighteen (18) years, is a full-time high school student and 3 who is not self-supporting, until the time the minor child completes the twelfth (12th) grade, or attains 4 the age of nineteen (19) years, or until further order of court, whichever first occurs.

5 B. The parties have specifically agreed that child support shall be set at $0, and that 6 neither party shall pay child support to the other at the present time.

7 C. Each party shall continue to maintain the minor child as a dependent on his/her 8 existing guild insurance plan for so long as he/she is eligible for the guild plan and there is a child 9 support obligation pursuant to Family Code Section 3901, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.
10 In the event that either or both parties are no longer eligible for medical coverage under the existing 11 guild plans, the parties shall meet and confer to discuss and ensure that the minor child remains 12 covered under a comparable medical plan. The parties shall cooperate with one another in securing 13 and completing medical claim forms for the minor child's medical treatment.

14 D. The parties shall maintain a joint bank account for the payment of Jack's 15 monthly expenses, such as clothing, child care, private school tuition and related expenses, 16 extracurricular activities, camp, food, entertainment, expenses related to unreimbursed medical, dental, 17 orthodontic, psychological, prescription drugs, and any credit card used solely for Jack's expenses.
18 Petitioner and Respondent shall fund this joint account on a yearly basis.

19 E. The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights and agree 20 to such child support without coercion or duress. The parties declare that their child's needs shall be 21 adequately met. The right to support has not been assigned to any county under Welfare and 22 Institutions Code § 11477 and no application for public assistance is pending.

23 F. Dependency exemption: The parties shall alternate years to claim the minor 24 child as a dependent on his/her tax returns and shall each be entitled to utilize the Head of Household 25 filing status when claiming the deduction for a minor child, so long as available under California and 26 federal law. Petitioner shall claim the minor child as a dependent in even years, commencing with tax 27 year 2018, and Respondent shall claim the minor child as a dependent in odd years, commencing with 28 ///

1 tax year 2019. In the event that one party does not benefit from the deduction in a particular year, 2 he/she shall offer the deduction to the other parent for that year.

3 G. The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights under 4 Family Code § 4065(d) which provides the following:

5 "If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support 6 order below the amount established by the statewide uniform guideline, 7 no change of circumstances need be demonstrated to obtain a 8 modification of the child support order to the applicable guideline level 9 or above."

10 H. The parties have been informed of the holding of the Court in Marriage of 11 Laudeman (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 1009. The parties acknowledge and agree that the child support 12 orders set forth in Section 5 reflect a compromise between the parties. In the event that the Court is 13 requested to determine the amount of guideline child support, the Court shall make that determination 14 de novo based on the parties' financial circumstances and custodial percentages at that time, and 15 neither party shall be required to demonstrate that there has been a material change in circumstances.

16 6. CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION

17 A. Legal Custody.

18 (1) The parties shall share joint legal custody of their minor child, 19 Jack Daniel Pratt, born August 17, 2012.

20 (2) In exercising joint legal custody, the parties shall have joint and equal 21 rights and responsibilities to make decisions relating to the minor child's health, education and 22 welfare. Pursuant to Section 3083 of the California Family Code, those decisions requiring the written 23 consent of both parties.

24 (3) In exercising joint legal custody, the parties shall cooperate and agree 25 in writing in making decisions on the following matters (in all other matters the parties may act alone):

26 (a) Beginning or ending the minor child's enrollment in a particular 27 private or public school;

28 (b) Beginning or ending psychiatric, psychological, or other such mental health counseling or therapy for the minor child;

(c) Authorizing the minor child's driving license;

1 (d) Changing the minor child’s principal residence farther than 5 2 miles from each party’s principal place of residence until the minor child completes 6th grade.

3 (e) Applying for the minor child’s passport;

4 (f) Allowing the minor child to work;

5 (g) Beginning or ending the minor child’s enrollment in regular 6 occurring extracurricular activities and camp;

7 (h) Non-emergency medical and dental treatment for the minor child, 8 including surgery (except for routine checkups).

9 (4) If the parties are unable to reach agreement regarding legal custody 10 issues affecting the minor child’s health, education and/or welfare, they shall participate in no less than 11 two mediation sessions with a mutually agreed co-parenting counselor, private mediator, or child 12 custody specialist within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by one party. Neither party shall 13 seek court intervention on a child custody issue prior to participating in mediation except in the case 14 of an emergency requiring ex parte notice.

15 B. Physical Custody (a.k.a. parenting responsibility).

16 (1) The parties shall share joint physical custody (parenting responsibility)
17 of the minor child. It is the intent of the parties to equally share physical custody of the minor child.
18 At the time of signing this Stipulated Judgment, the parties have a flexible timeshare which requires 19 the parties’ ongoing cooperation and mutual agreement. Petitioner and Respondent acknowledge and 20 agree that their custody schedule will be based on each party’s availability, work schedules, and Jack’s 21 best interest. If either party wishes to establish a specific timeshare schedule, the parties will promptly 22 meet and confer in an effort to reach a resolution with or without the assistance of a jointly selected 23 child specialist or parenting counselor. The new plan will be reflected in a stipulated agreement, 24 executed by the parties. If the parties do not reach an agreement or are otherwise unable to resolve the 25 issues, either party may seek court intervention. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit in any way either 26 party’s right to seek ex parte relief from the court.

- 1 C. Additional Custodial Orders Regarding the Minor Children:
- 2 (1) If either party intends to travel with the minor child outside the State of
- 3 California, he/she shall give reasonable advance notice in writing to the other party (email shall
- 4 suffice). If either party intends to travel outside the United States with the minor child, he/she shall
- 5 provide the non-traveling parent with thirty (30) days' advance written notice and receive written
- 6 consent in advance of departure, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, except for an
- 7 emergency situation where it is not possible to give thirty (30) days' advance written notice. During
- 8 any time away, the then custodial parent shall keep the non custodial parent informed regarding an
- 9 address and phone number where the minor child may be reached at all times. For any vacations
- 10 outside of California, the traveling party shall provide a written itinerary with airline travel, hotels or
- 11 other accommodations, departure and arrival dates, to the other party at least seven (7) days in
- 12 advance.
- 13 (2) Each parent shall keep the other parent informed of his or her current
- 14 address and telephone number and of the minor child at all times and shall notify the other in advance
- 15 or, if advance notice is impossible, within 2 days of any change of address or telephone number.
- 16 (3) Each parent shall involve and share information with the other parent,
- 17 in a consistent, ongoing and meaningful way in all school and extracurricular activities of the minor
- 18 child. The minor child's school(s) shall be instructed to notify each parent about all teacher
- 19 conferences, school open houses and events to which parents are invited and to send school notices
- 20 and report cards to each parent and each parent shall be listed on the school(s)' "emergency list."
- 21 Alternatively, each parent shall consult the school's website regarding the school calendar and all
- 22 school related events regarding the minor child.
- 23 (4) Telephone Access: Each party shall facilitate telephone contact between
- 24 the minor child and the other parent during his/her custodial time with the minor child. Telephone
- 25 contact shall be unrestricted.
- 26 (5) Flexibility: Each party shall exercise reason and good faith with the
- 27 other party where circumstances require a change in custodial arrangements, and shall make decisions
- 28 and take actions in the best interests of the minor child.

1 (6) Alternate Childcare: In the event that either party will be unavailable 2 during his/her custodial time to care for the minor child for an overnight or more, he/she shall give the 3 other party reasonable advance notice and an opportunity, but not the obligation, to have the minor 4 child during his or her absence before arranging alternate third party childcare.

5 (7) Relocation: The parties agree that Los Angeles County is the habitual 6 residence of the minor child and is the minor child's "Home State." Petitioner and Respondent shall 7 continue to live within five (5) miles of each other's current residence until the minor child completes 8 the 6th grade. In the event that either party desires to permanently relocate out of Los Angeles County, 9 he/she shall give written notice to the other party as soon as possible but no later than three (3) months 10 in advance of the proposed move (unless impossible) so that the parties may attempt informal 11 resolution of the issues and modification of the custody plan before filing any documents seeking court 12 intervention. In the event that the parties cannot reach an informal resolution, either party shall have 13 the right to seek court intervention to determine the issues.

14 D. Modification/Mediation: In the event either party wishes to revisit and modify 15 the physical custody schedule, the parties shall promptly meet in an effort to facilitate resolution of the 16 issue. Within thirty (30) days of a request by either party, unless extended mutually by the parties, the 17 parties shall attend a minimum of two (2) sessions with a jointly selected co-parenting therapist, or 18 child specialist or counselor to address the issues raised by the parties and to help them determine a 19 mutually agreeable parenting plan. The plan shall then be reflected in a stipulated modification of 20 the custody plan. If, after having complied with the above procedure, the parties are unable to resolve 21 issues regarding their custodial times, rights, and/or responsibilities, either party may seek court 22 intervention. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit in any way either party's access to the court for 23 orders which require emergency intervention and cannot await the mediation process.

24 E. The parties agree that the custody orders set forth herein shall not be deemed 25 a final judicial custody determination for purposes of the changed circumstances rule, and this 26 statement constitutes a clear, affirmative indication that the parties do not intend such a result within 27 the meaning of Montenegro v. Diaz (2001) 26 Cal.4th 249. Accordingly, each party reserves his/her 28 right to make all claims and contentions and submit any and all facts which occurred prior to the

1 signing of this Stipulated Judgment and any and all facts which occur after the signing of this 2 Stipulated Judgment, which bear on custody issues and the best interests of the minor child. The 3 custody orders set forth herein shall be subject to modification based on the best interests of the minor 4 child, without the party seeking modification having to determine a significant change of 5 circumstances.

6 F. Family Code § 3048 Findings: Pursuant to Family Code § 3048, Petitioner and 7 Respondent have acknowledged and THE COURT FINDS as follows:

8 (1) The Court has jurisdiction over Jack because California is the home state 9 of Jack; each party has filed a Declaration Under Uniform Child Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

10 (2) Based upon the Declaration Under Uniform Child Jurisdiction and 11 Enforcement Act filed by Petitioner and Respondent, the United States of America is the country of 12 habitual residence of Jack.

13 (3) Petitioner and Respondent each possess knowledge of their custody and 14 visitation rights with respect to Jack since each of party has had the opportunity to be represented by
